REGRET exceedingly to be compelled to say a few words to two classed of my burders. The first are those who do not pay promptly. It is impossible for me to keep up without prompt payment. The other class are those who are dissatisfed with their lare, and the rules and regulations of the house. I better the proprietor has a right to his rules, and thuse who are dissatisfed save the right and privilege to leave. When they are disatisfied they will oblige me to do so. I hope this notice will suffl. e. Very respectfully.
